The MCA of Chicago best represents its members when its board is comprised of people representing a variety of sectors and sized companies.

Goal
- Provide association with a strategic plan.
- Approve MCA of Chicago budget with committee input.

Commitment
- Typically gather for five regular board meetings, one special board meeting, one strategic planning meeting, and one annual meeting.
- Serve as board liaison to approximately 2-3 committees.
- Encouraged to attend MCA events to provide a face to the organization.

Contact
Jill McCall
jmccall@mca.org
mca.org
(312) 384-1220

Participation is the best way to get the most out of your membership with MCA of Chicago. To join, email kgray@mca.org.
MCA of Chicago
Board of Directors

Purpose
Supervise, control and direct the affairs of the Association; determine its policies or changes therein within the limits of the bylaws; actively prosecute its purposes, and provide discretion in the disbursement of its funds.

The board is MCA of Chicago’s most powerful leadership group. The board determines how to interpret the bylaws and can create policy and procedures if the bylaws do not address them.

Things to Remember
- Member representation.
- Director term limits.
- Who serves on the board?

The board is comprised of the President, Vice President, Secretary/Treasurer, and Immediate Past President and at least 6 directors.

Directors must leave the board for a year after serving two, two-year terms and then can return.

Commitment
- Typically gather for five regular board meetings, one special board meeting, one strategic planning meeting, and one annual meeting.
- Serve as board liaison to approximately 2-3 committees.
- Encouraged to attend MCA events to provide a face to the organization.

Goals
- Provide association with a strategic plan.
- Approve MCA of Chicago budget with committee input.

Participation is the best way to get the most out of your membership with MCA of Chicago. To join, email kgray@mca.org.